Welcome to Summer Reading 2019! The theme this year is “It’s Showtime at Your Library!”

Read or listen to a total of 5 books of your own choosing. They can be fiction, nonfiction, and/or graphic novels. Record the author and title of each book on your reading log. Return your completed reading log to the Adult Services reference desk by August 10. Your reading log serves as your entry for prizes drawn at the end of the program (DeKalb PL card holders only). You may fill out as many reading logs as you would like!

Here Comes the Showboat!

Save the date— Saturday, June 22nd at 2:00 p.m. Yusunas Meeting Room

Stop by the library for JoAleene Miranda’s “Born in a Trunk” program and be entertained with her personal stories of the life and times on a famous river showboat and the post war years of entertainment on the road.

This program is free. Everyone is welcome and registration is not required.

Thank you to the Friends of the DeKalb Public Library for sponsoring this program.
